

FREE LABOR-MANAGEMENT PREVAILING WAGE SEMINAR

“keeping it fair, for contractors and workers”

A MUST ATTEND EVENT FOR PUBLIC BODIES, PUBLIC WORKS CONTRACTORS AND ATTORNEYS

The Indiana, Illinois, Iowa Foundation for Fair Contracting welcomes your participation at the first annual III FFC Prevailing Wage Seminar. Learn about amendments to the Illinois Prevailing Wage Act, including new public body liability, increased penalties and key cases that change the landscape of prevailing wage coverage. And hear from the agencies that enforce the Act.

This year’s panel will include: Department’s perspective – Tom Whalen (Division Manager Conciliation & Mediation, Illinois Department of Labor); Agencies perspective – Deborah Simpson (Attorney General Law Bureau Unit Supervisor, Illinois Attorney General’s Office); Labor’s perspective - Marc Poulos (Executive Director and Counsel III FFC); Management’s perspective – Michael Duffee (Attorney, Thompson Coburn, LLP).

Wednesday November 9, 2011
9:00 – 1:00 p.m.
Willowbrook Holiday Inn
7800 South Kingery Hwy.
Willowbrook, IL 60521
10 miles from Chicago
at I-55 and Route 83 (Kingery Hwy)
Room Reservations: 630-325-6400

Box lunches will be provided

Space is limited: To reserve your seat please contact Rosie Garza at 815-254-FFFC

This event is endorsed by: Illinois Attorney General’s Office; Illinois Department of Labor; Illinois Chamber of Commerce, Infrastructure Council; Illinois Road and Transportation Builders; Underground Contractors Association; Contractors Association of Will and Grundy Counties; Excavators, Inc.; Fox Valley Associated General Contractors; Chicago Federation of Labor, and; Illinois AFL-CIO.

The Indiana, Illinois, Iowa Foundation for Fair Contracting is an approved Illinois MCLE provider. This program entitles attorneys to earn 3.5 hours of General MCLE credit.